

COUNSELING METHODS TO ADDRESS THE PROBLEM OF GRADE REPETITION - EXPERIENCES OF COUNTRIES IN THIS REGARD

Amina Yacine
Oran university

Abstract- The problem of school drop-represented in the phenomenon of repetition or “repeat the year”, has become the problem impose itself in various educational institutions, and calls for urgent interventions: political, governmental, pedagogical ... etc..*

In this issue, the researcher propose a number of techniques that can cope with the risk of the phenomenon, derived from counseling services, and a series of international studies, investigations and experiences of some countries managed to control the problem, and eliminate it completely, such as preventive counseling programs, individual assistance, tutoring, and other appropriate solutions.

Keywords- Counseling methods, countries experiences, grade repetition, preventive counseling programs, tutoring.*