

EDUCATIONAL IMPLICATIONS FOR EXPIATION IN ISLAM

ASMA'A ALI MOHAMMED FADOL

Assistant professor of Education.

Faculty of Education

Umm AL-Qura University

ABSTRACT_ This study aims to release the wisdom of Islamic legislation expiation for breeding Muslim individual, as the study concludes that the educational contents is allocating to redress the shortcomings of the work of some individuals in the Muslim community, the study also found that when the educational aspect is allocating of both contractual and social.*

Researcher two approaches have been followed in the study: deductive approach and the descriptive approach in an attempt to clarify the content of expiation Islamic legislation in the educational perspective.

Finally it concluded a researcher at the research journey to the set of results, and most important: That the educational content of the necessity of Atonement extends its impact to prevent the individual Muslim from falling into sin again, as has been explained researcher diversity expiation depending on the diversity of legal irregularities.

Key words: Contents, educational, Expiation, Islamic legislation.*