

EDUCATIONAL E-BOOK: A REVIEW OF THE LITERATURE

HESSAH M. AL SHAYA

Associate Professor In Educational Technology
Princess Nourah University

AFNAN A. OY Aid

Associate Professor In Educational Technology
Princess Nourah University

ABSTRACT_ Educational E-Books are considered one of the most important elements and components of the educational process digital content in the era of digital learning. Therefore, the present study aimed to publicize the importance of e-books in education in general and in higher education in particular. In addition to identifying the most prominent characteristics, advantages, and challenges it faces; as well as reviewing the most important design standards and requirements for producing educational e-books that will assist them to achieve desired educational goals. The latest and most influential studies in the field of educational e-books were reviewed in this study which is believed to benefit educational technology specialist, educators, and researchers in the field of technology.*

KEYWORDS: E-book, E-text book, E-book Design Standards, E-learning, E-publishing.*