

THE ACADEMIC PROBLEMS THAT FACED BY HIGHER EDUCATION STUDENTS IN THE EDUCATION COLLEGE OF KING SAUD UNIVERSITY

ARWA SULAIMAN ALZOMAN
King Saud University

HASSAH SAED ALARIFI
King Saud University

ABSTRACT_ his study aims to identify and determine problems faced by postgraduate students of Education college at King Saud University, as well as identifying the differences between postgraduate students responses according to the change of the study. In addition to identifying the proposed solutions which may lead to reducing academic problems that face postgraduate students of Education college at King Saud University. Therefore, the researcher used descriptive analytical method as well as a questionnaire as a tool to collect data which was distributed to a random sample of (148 students) from both PHD and Master degree students in the regular programs of Education college at King Saud University.*

The study has come to very important findings as following: The study sample approved on the problems faced by postgraduate students of Education college at King Saud University, with arithmetical mean of (2.78), There are no statistically significant differences between students' responses about the academic problems according to the change of the course, except the problems related to (faculty and the course), and The most important solutions for postgraduate problems are represented in the following; to provide modern courses and free of repetition as well as providing new references in the library continuously.

Keyword :education college, king saud university, higher education, The academic problems.