

VIOLENCE INDICATIONS AVATAR THROUGH ANALYSIS OF DRAWINGS FOR CHILDREN WITH HYPERACTIVITY AND DISTRACTION

FAHAD BIN MOHAMMED AL SHAMMARI
King Saud University

ABSTRACT_ The research aims to identify Violence indications Avatar through analysis of Drawings for Children with hyperactivity and distraction.*

In the age from 7 to 10 years, as well as to identify the differences between males and females in the tendency to violence dimensions, as well as to identify the differences between the children, according to the order of family birthdays the tendency to violence dimensions. The research sample was limited to a group of children who were of significant excess activity, and the number of 95 members of the search. Research Tools included on violence Avatar semantic analysis of children's drawings from the category of hyperactivity and Attention Deficit form, and the measure of the tendency to violence in children's behavior from hyperactivity category and distract from the age of 7 to 10 years. The study results showed a difference of inclination of the violence in the behavior where the males are more violent than the dimensions of the female, the study recommended offering a range of art activities addressed to the category of hyperactivity and Attention Deficit commensurate with the nature of the variables that responded to the study.

KEY WORDS: Plastic art therapeutic skills, Strikes behavioral, Plastic Art interaction.*