

EDUCATIONAL PRINCIPLES IN THE SUNNAH, THROUGH A SINGULAR BOOK OF IMAM AL-BUKHARI

RAJA' S. ALMEHDAR
Umm Al-Qura University

ABSTRACT_ The study aimed to Identify the educational principles in the Sunnah, on the side of the spiritual ,social ,economic ,moral, political, educational, and family, through a singular book of Imam Al-Bukhari ,and educational applications in the field of people's daily lives. Researcher relied on deductive descriptive approach, where the extraction of the educational principle of the conversations, and then inserted under their own side. The most important results: It included the right conversations in the book of literature singular number of educational principles which are indispensable in the life of every Muslim, where he focused on all human aspects including:

In relation to the spiritual side of lumpy side, and transactions. In the social aspect with respect to the customs, traditions and social values, social roles On the economic side with regard to economic concepts and practices, work and production. The ethical aspect with regard to moral values and virtues of work. In the political aspect with regard to political values as a principle of the Shura, and the advice of the guardian, the right of the citizen to the guardian, and duties of the citizen towards his Creator and his fellow Muslims and the state.

In the educational aspect with regard to the teacher and its importance, and the manners of the world and the learner, and teaching methods. In domestic side with regard to the relationship of the Muslim parents and included in the rights of parents, and the relationship of a Muslim wife, rights towards each other, and the relationship of Muslims with his children.

KEY WORDS: principles, Educational, Spirituality, Social, Economic, Morality, Political, Educational, Secrecy, Preparation.