

USE PARTIAL CREDIT MODEL IN THE SELECTION OF THE PARAGRAPHS OF GRADUATE STUDENTS ATTITUDES SCALE TOWARDS THE SPSS PROGRAM IN MAKKAH REGION

KHADIJA DAIF_ALLAH ALQURASHY
TAIF UNIVERSITY

ABSTRACT_ The study aimed to use partial credit model in the selection of the paragraphs of graduate students attitudes scale towards the SPSS program in the faculty of Education in each of the King Abdul Aziz University and Om El-Kora and Taif, to achieve this goal the researcher design the trend measure towards SPSS program offers assessment objective to pry trends, measure consists of (65) paragraph of multiple choice (5 alternatives), and applied the test on the sample of (195) students from the faculties of education at universities King Abdul Aziz , Om El- Kora and Taif, The results indicated that the scale measures a single attribute, and does not affect answer any single other single result, and that a liberal measure of the speed factor, and that there was a match between the vertebrae scale trends with partial estimation model, and that the measure has the function of information that is answered determine students' attitudes about SPSS program.*

KEYWORDS: model partial appreciation - scale trend toward software SPSS - graduate.*