

THE EFFECTIVENESS OF THE ADMINISTRATIVE COMMUNICATION METHODS FOR THE DIRECTORS OF PUBLIC EDUCATION SCHOOLS IN SANA'A FROM THE TEACHER'S POINT OF VIEWS

Mohammed Zain Saleh ALSadi*

---

ABSTRACT_ The objective of the research is to identify the effectiveness of the administrative communication methods of the principals of general education schools (primary - secondary) in Sana'a from the Teacher's Point of views, by monitoring their reality in the following fields: (Transparency - Participation - Timing - means of communication used), and to achieve the objectives of the research, the researcher used the descriptive method(survey), and the research population was all teachers in the general education schools (primary - secondary) in Sana'a, which was (18578) teachers, then the researcher selected a stratified and random sample from all districts of Sana'a, it was (388) teachers from all different scientific disciplines. The research found that the degree of effectiveness of the administrative communication methods among principals of general education schools in Sana'a was (very low). The research also found that there are no statistically significant differences between the responses related to (gender, the stage studied by teachers, qualification, years of experience).

KEYWORDS: Effectiveness of administrative communication methods, school teachers.