

TEACHER'S ATTITUDES ABOUT SIGNWRITING ACCORDING SOME VARIABLES

MOHAMED ABUSHAIRA
Associate prof. special education dept.
Faculty of Education and literature
University of Tabuk

ABSTRACT_ The study aimed to investigate teacher's attitudes about Sign Writing according some variables (Country, Sex, and Education level,). Descriptive methodology used, and a questionnaire designed and distributed online to achieve study goal, it consists of three parts (Cover Letter, Demographic information and (14) Paragraph). 17 participants respond to the questionnaire from 7 countries: Brazil, Saudi Arabia, Colombia, Germany, Tunisia, United States of America, France. The results showed that teachers attitudes about Sign Writing is positive and high, the total score mean= 59.64 with standard deviation = 8.91. It also showed that there are significant statistical differences in total score mean according sex favor male, but there are no a significant statistical differences in total score mean according to other variables.*

KEY WORDS: Attitudes, Deaf, Sign Writing, Teachers, Valerie Sutton.*