

A SUGGESTED VISION TO ESTABLISH AN ADMINISTRATION OF ELECTRONIC LEARNING IN SHAQRAA UNIVERSITY

SAUD A. B. ALROWAILY

Shaqraa University

ABSTRACT_ The current research aimed to introduce an attempt of a suggested vision to establish an administration of Electronic Learning in Shaqraa University, The research has been used the descriptive analytical method to monitor the current status of the system electronic Learning in Shaqraa University through the available literature in this regard, and through analyzing the internal and external environment, strengths, weaknesses, threats and opportunities. The research included a theoretical framework in which the electronic learning concept, functions, components and management of electronic learning are treated, and another field framework which a questionnaire applied in a sample of (520) faculty-staff members in fifteen theoretical and practical Faculty in Shaqraa University, The research has found out that the University of Shaqraa has not a management of E-learning, in spite of it has the initial potential, material and human, that help to make it happen. The research providing the features vision of the founding of the administration of E-learning Shaqraa University included the establishment of a distance electronic learning center at the university, developing a strategic plan for electronic system, establishing an electronic learning infrastructure and, finally training and technical support.

Key word: suggested vision, administration of Electronic Learning, Shaqraa University.